AQUASUR 2026

Alongside our partner Prinal

We attended the AQUASUR 2026 trade fair, which took place from 24 to 26 March in Chile. AQUASUR is a must-attend event for global players in the salmon and aquaculture industry in Latin America.

Our aquaculture expert Amine Chaabane, our Latin America manager Rodrigo Tozetto and our division director Christophe Langlade were in attendance alongside our partner Prinal.

French news!

March 22, 23 and 24 was the Sidaction association's annual event, which raises funds for the HIV virus research.

Sidaction funds research teams, research programs, promotes scientific exchange between researchers to discuss and promotes HIV research by young researchers.

All these actions have already led to considerable scientific advances, with the introduction of treatments for sufferers but there is still a lot of work and research to be done to win the battle against this virus.

Article: Antioxidants: Natural alternatives, a key lever for animal and human nutrition

Natural antioxidants are emerging as powerful alternatives to synthetic compounds, helping combat oxidative stress—a key driver of cellular aging and chronic diseases. By neutralizing free radicals, they protect cells, improve health, and enhance performance.
